

Living as those known and loved
For the week of May 12 – 18

Big Question for the week: What parts of your life might you need to allow Jesus access to in order for you to fully follow Him?

Day 1: 1 Corinthians 8:1 – 3

Three questions to ponder:

- How does the love Paul speaks of highlight relationship?
- How does the love Paul speaks of highlight maturity and depth of knowing?
- How would explain what verse 3 means?

Day 2: 1 Corinthians 13:1 – 13

Three questions to ponder:

- How does the love Paul speaks of highlight relationship?
- How does the love Paul speaks of highlight maturity and depth of knowing?
- What does our culture miss with its definition of love?

Day 3: Psalm 8 & Genesis 1:26 – 27 & 2:15 – 25

Two questions to ponder:

- What significance is there to being made in God's image as we consider these passages?
- How does this help us to understand what occurs when sin enters the world? What breaks down?

Day 4: Matthew 11:28 – 30 & James 4:8 & 2 Chronicles 7:14

Three questions to ponder:

- What does God say about approaching Him?
- What significance is there to 'being available' to God?
- What does God promise when we make ourselves vulnerable before Him?

Day 5: Luke 4:1 – 13

Three question to ponder:

- How does the temptation of Christ help us?
- Where does shame appear in the temptation?
- How are the questions here similar to the serpent's?

Prayer: we might open ourselves to God and His call.
